

Eden Lakes Dental Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED
AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

We are committed to protecting the privacy of your medical information. Your care and treatment at Eden Lakes Dental is recorded in a medical record. So that we can best meet your medical needs, we share your medical record with the providers involved in your care. We share your information only to the extent necessary to collect payment for the services we provide, to conduct our business operations, and to comply with the laws that govern health care. We will not use or disclose your information for any other purpose without your permission.

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.
Copy of medical record	Receive an electronic or paper copy of your medical record. You can ask to see or copy an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this. We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information within a reasonable time. If you ask to see or receive a copy of your record for purposes of reviewing current medical care, we may not charge you a fee. If you request copies of your patient records of past medical care, or for certain appeals, we may charge you specified fees.
Request to amend medical record	Ask us to correct your medical record. You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this. We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days.
Request confidential communications	Request for us to contact you confidentially. You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address. We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests.
Request to limit use/sharing of TPO	Ask us to limit what we use or share. You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations (TPO). We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care. If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information.
List of those with whom we’ve shared information	Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information. You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We’ll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.
Copy of this privacy notice	Get a copy of this privacy notice.

	You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.
File a complaint	File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated. You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us. You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, DC 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. This section details some choices you have regarding your health information.
Request us not to share	If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions. In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us NOT to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care.
